

BIOGRAPHY   James M Doherty

---

Personal

Jim is the oldest of eight children and the son Patrick E and Luella J Doherty of Lenexa Kansas. Jim is also the father of four children Shane, Jeremy, Jennifer, Joshua and the grandfather of three grandchildren Payton, Wade and Addison. Jim is married to his wife Susan of 33 years and resides in Georgetown Texas.

Athletics

Jim is a former all-state basketball athlete from the state of Kansas class 3A. Jim attended & played basketball for St. Mary of the Plains College in Dodge City, Kansas. Jim was also an official of 18 years and a Texas High School State Tournament Official during the 1999 to 2001 seasons. Jim is the founder of the St. Louis Fall Basketball League, and a former President of the Parkway Basketball Association. In addition to these posts Jim served as a member of the Board of Directors for the Ballwin Athletic Association and is a former President and Board member of the Austin Officials Association. Jim has also coached basketball and baseball at the middle school level where his teams competed at the national level.

Work

Jim's working career has been solely with AT&T. Jim has held various posts with AT&T and is currently a Principal Member of Technical Staff with AT&T Labs Inc. where he is the author of over 30 patents involved with software development and large system design. Jim has received numerous awards while at AT&T including the Presidents Award, the Cabinet Award, and several Key Contributor Awards. Jim is one of the principal architects and designers of the AT&T Unified Messaging System.

Community

Jim is a member of First Baptist Church, Georgetown Texas where he serves as a Sunday School teacher and Deacon.