

Tammy Gillespie
Sheraton Arlington Hotel

Tammy Gillespie's relationship with Texas Girls Coaches Association began in 1989, when she worked as a front desk associate checking guests in attending the conference. She then continued her career in the hospitality industry, serving as a Sales Manager at the Radisson Arlington (currently Crowne Plaza Arlington) from 1994 to 1996, followed by a Sales Manager role at the Radisson Fort Worth from 1996 to 1998.

In 1998, Tammy joined Sheraton Arlington as a Sales Manager, where she served until 2003. She then took on the role of National Sales Director at Wyndham National Sales from 2003 to 2004 before returning to Sheraton Arlington as an Associate Director of Sales from 2005 to 2013. Tammy's dedication and hard work paid off when she was promoted to the position of Director of Sales & Marketing at Sheraton Arlington, which she held from 2013 to the current year of 2023.

In 2023, Tammy received a promotion with Urbana Varro to Regional Director of Sales, where she is responsible for developing sales strategies to meet revenue targets for the company. Despite the challenges posed by the pandemic, Tammy and the Hotel's Team remain optimistic and grateful that meetings and events have returned earlier than projected, emphasizing the importance of the hospitality industry to the global economy.

Overall, Tammy is a seasoned professional with over 35 years in the hospitality industry. Her commitment to providing quality products and services, coupled with her strong leadership skills, make her an asset to the hospitality industry.
