

With the closing of all schools in Texas and the UIL spring sports being canceled. The TGCA had to make decisions concerning honors of student/athletes and coaches. Due to not finishing any spring sport season, the TGCA decided not to select any honors that would be dependent on a state champion.