Steve Golemon

James Stephen “Steve” Golemon was born October 2, 1944. Golemon was, as is his wife, Myra Beth Thurman Golemon, graduates of Tivy High School in Kerrville, and he would earn both a Bachelor’s of Science and a Master’s in Administrative Education from Southwest Texas State University (Now Texas State University).

Golemon and his wife, Myra, who had been a Pre-Kindergarten paraprofessional when she took an early disability retirement from Hill Country Elementary (Bandera I.S.D.), have two adult children, a son, Thurman Lamar Golemon, who is 48, and a daughter, Alisa Kaye Owens, who is 46. The Golemon’s had a third child Mendi Tré Golemon who is deceased.

Mendi, the Golemon’s youngest child, was 3 years old when she passed. Mendi died as a result of traumatic injuries she suffered in a car wreck. Though, the Golemon’s and all three of their children were injured in the wreck, only Mendi’s injuries proved to be fatal. The Golemon’s car wreck would have a dynamic impact on the family and would change the trajectory of Golemon’s coaching career, as Mendi’s passing, would cause Golemon to decide to make mentoring and coaching female athletes a defining aspect of his career.

The Golemon’s lone grandchild, Alisa’s daughter, McKenzie Owens, is 23 and is a 2017 graduate of Bandera High School. McKenzie is currently attending the University of Texas San Antonio where she is majoring in kinesiology. Golemon and his granddaughter, McKenzie, were extremely close, and she was his pride and joy.

Golemon began teaching and coaching in 1969 at La Pryor High School and would also teach and coach in Lockhart, Georgetown, Woodsboro (twice), George West, Copperas Cove, Giddings, and Bandera, before returning to Llano I.S.D., in 2018, for a second stint, where he had been for 13 years, prior to the 13 years he spent with Bandera I.S.D. Over the past 52 1/2 years, Golemon, aside from being a head track and field coach for 36 years and a head cross country coach for 33 years, coached football for 34 years (most of those years either an offensive coordinator or defensive coordinator), had 3 times been a head basketball coach, and had coached powerlifting. As a track and field coach, Golemon coached multiple District and Regional Championship teams, as well as, in 1992, a Boys' 2A State Championship team.

Golemon's first contact with coaching cross country was as a volunteer assistant at George West High School in 1978 and 1979. Golemon served as the head varsity cross country coach, for Giddings, Woodsboro, Llano, and Bandera I.S.D.'s. The teams under Golemon's tutelage would amass 25 District Titles (with only 3 times, prior to his departure from Bandera, did a team not at least place as the District's Runner-up), 7 Regional Titles, and 5 Regional Runner-ups. Girls' Cross Country teams coached by Golemon competed, as a team, at the State Meet 13 times, finishing in the top half of the field 11 times, placing once Third and once as the State Runner-up, as well as, winning 5 State Championships (4 of which were earned consecutively by the Bandera Girls' Varsity Cross Country team (2014-2017)).

Numerous honors were bestowed on Golemon throughout his coaching career. Multiple times, he was selected as "Cross Country Coach of the Year", in the U.I.L. Classification in which he was coaching, by either the Cross Country Coaches Association of Texas (2015 and 2016), the Texas Girls Coaches Association (2013), and the San Antonio Express (2014 and 2015). Golemon was also selected by the National Federation of High Schools as the "2015-2016 Texas Cross Country Coach of the Year." In 1992, he was selected by the Corpus Christi Caller Times as the "Coastal Bend Track and Field Coach of the Year."

Golemon attributed all team and individual successes, over the years, to, "... having had the opportunity to coach extremely committed, hardworking, self-disciplined, and well-rounded student-athletes, who have had the will to make the sacrifices necessary to excel beyond even their own expectations". The principle that Golemon would instill in all his teams and that would become the foundation upon which each of his Title/Championship teams built their success was,

“The right people, doing the right things at the right time for the right reasons, will always produce the right results,” or more simply put, that is “to put it bluntly”, “WILL IT TO HAPPEN, AND IT WILL HAPPEN!!!!”

Golemon returned to Llano I.S.D. in 2018 to coach both girls’ and boys’ cross country; it would be Golemon’s final coaching assignment, which would come to an end, in 2021, with the Llano Girls’ team winning the District Title and the Llano Boys’ team capturing Third Place at District. Steve Golemon understood that life is a race; he stayed faithful to the course and finished his race October 19, 2021, at the age of 77.

TGCA Sportswriter of the Year - Division I
Kale Steed
Press Pass Sports

Kale Steed has been an avid sports fan his entire life. The Canadian, Texas native didn't waste his time getting his start in media.

At the age of 21, Kale landed his first position in the field in 2002 when he accepted an offer to be an intern with KVII-TV in Amarillo.

That internship lead to his first job at KFDA News channel 10 as a videographer.

Kale then moved to Lubbock where he accepted a position as a videographer for KCBD-TV, covering news and sports on the South Plains from 2003-2007.

From there he moved across town to KJTV, where he continued work as a photographer and also traveled with the Texas Tech football team and Lady Raider basketball team, helping providing in-depth coverage.

After his time in Lubbock, Kale seized the opportunity to expand his career going back to Amarillo to become a News Reporter with KVII-TV. After a year and a half in news, Kale was promoted to Sports Reporter and weekend Sports Anchor.

He served in this role from 2010-2014, providing coverage and insight into all the local, regional and national sports scenes. This included West Texas A&M, Texas Tech University, over 70 area high schools, semiprofessional baseball, hockey, and football.

In 2014, Kale made the transition from TV to print and joined the Amarillo GlobeNews as a staff sports reporter.

In his time at AGN, Kale was named the Lone Star Conference Kirk Hill Writer of the Year recipient four times, and won the 2018 Texas High School Coaches Association Putt Powell Sports Writer of the Year award.

In 2019, Kale left AGN to begin his own passion project. Kale is now the founder/editor-in-chief of Press Pass Sports. A sports website that is constantly growing to provide the best local coverage in the Texas Panhandle.

He also co-hosts a local podcast, discussing local sports across the Amarillo-area two days a week.

Kale has always been a person who strives to learn absolutely everything about media and always to get better everyday.

He has loved his time building relationships with coaches, players and other media members across the state.

TGCA Sportswriter of the Year - Division II

Evan Ren

Big Country Preps

A winner of 18 Associated Press writing awards in a 17-year career, Evan Ren’s road into journalism was an improbable one, beginning on an Arizona construction site nearly 20 years ago.

In fact, until August of 2000, he was literally swinging a sledgehammer for a living, working as a land surveyor in Tucson — a job he despised.

During this time, he wrote multiple letters to local sports editors, getting a positive reaction from friends and family who noticed he had a flair for the written word. But it wasn’t until an afternoon in 1999 when Ren finally had a moment of clarity.

While cleaning out his storeroom, he discovered his old high school yearbook, in which he found a note from his journalism teacher on the inside cover: “Evan, I hope someday, somewhere, someone will understand you or impress you enough to take your obvious talent and head it into the great directions it could go. ... Send me a bylined story someday and I’ll edit it or improve it.”

It was at that moment that the age of 34, something clicked.

Ren realized the dream he held of being a sports writer as a high school student could still be pursued. And with a little added coaxing from his wife, Kristyl, he soon approached the local afternoon paper, the Tucson Citizen, for a tryout as a correspondent.

To his surprise, the Citizen staff not only praised his work, but put him at the top of their correspondent rotation — assigning him to major-and minor-league baseball, professional boxing and multiple front-page features.

During spring training in 2000, Chicago AP came calling, using Ren a correspondent to cover the White Sox during their month-long stay in Tucson.

“It was surreal,” Ren said. “For a time, I was working on construction sites during the day, and covering the Chicago White Sox by night.

“I’d go to work the next day and tell the guys ‘Hey, I got to interview Harold Baines and Frank Thomas last night,’ and nobody would believe me.”

The dual existence was short-lived.

A little more than a year after beginning his work as a correspondent, Ren quit his day job as a surveyor and boosted his part-time schedule of college courses to a full-time slate.

By June of 2001, he had landed his first full-time newspaper gig with the Killeen Daily Herald, where he would remain for five years before receiving a job offer from the Abilene Reporter-News.

Since putting the sledgehammer down for good, Evan has collected 13 Associated Press Managing Editors writing awards, four Southwest Associated Press Sports Editors regional awards and an APSE national honorable mention.

His feature work has appeared in publications such as “Baseball America,” “Military Times” and “Dave Campbell’s Texas Football” magazine.

He now joins Daniel Youngblood at BigCountryPreps.com for “one of the most exciting projects of my life.”

In his spare time, Ren is currently working on a book project that “I’ve been sitting on for the last 20 years and finally have the opportunity to write.” He is also an avid NHL hockey fan.

He and Kristyl will celebrate their 35th wedding anniversary on Dec. 19, 2022. They enjoy travel (recently accomplishing a long-stated goal of going to New York City), barbecuing and fighting over the remote control.

TGCA State Award of Merit Citation
Dr. James Peterson

Jim is the founder of two Monterey, California-based publishing companies that produce instructional materials, Coaches Choice and Healthy Learning. From 1971–1990, he was a member of the faculty at the United States Military Academy. Subsequently, he spent five years as the director of sports medicine for StairMaster Sports/Medical Products, Inc., based in Kirkland, Washington. He is the author of more than 90 books and more than 200 published articles. In addition, he wrote the “Take Ten” column for ACSM’s Health & Fitness Journal for 25 years, and many of those columns have been reprinted in the monthly TGCA Newsletter. He has also appeared on a number of national television shows, including ABC’s Good Morning America, ABC’s Nightline, and the CBS Evening News. His written efforts have appeared in a variety of publications, including The New York Times.

Jim is a longtime supporter of TGCA. Not only has he been honored to speak annually at the TGCA summer clinic for more than 40 years, he has also operated an onsite bookstore during that period at the annual TGCA clinic.

Jim is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley (BS degree in business), as well as the University of Illinois (MS and Ph.D. degrees in physical education). Currently, he resides in Monterey, California, with his wife of 54 years, Sue.
